RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Perplexity AI

Chapel Hill, NC | Sep 2025 – Nov 2025

Student Ambassador

- Organized 3 campus tabling events with 150+ participants to promote Perplexity AI's features, increasing brand awareness and capturing feedback on how students utilized AI to find and summarize academic sources.
- Conducted 50+ follow-up student interviews and surveys, discovering pain points in AI-assisted research workflow where unclear prompts & ambiguous wording from non-technical users often caused AI to miss key structured data.
- Developed a campus outreach strategy that translated Perplexity's technical features into simple, benefit-led use cases for non-technical students, helping different user segments maximize AI search value.

Proactive AI Agent

Chapel Hill, NC | Jan 2026 – Present

Co-researcher & -designer

- Co-designed an LLM-driven proactive assistant utilizing long-term memory and context-aware reflection logic to provide anticipatory support under user's temporal constraints & multi-modal input data.
- Engineered a 1,800-day longitudinal dataset (leveraged LLM to simulate 60 days of digital logs of 30 users with diverse personas) to benchmark an agent's temporal reasoning in meta-data: calendars, emails, texts, contacts, etc.
- Designed evaluation protocols to research the "Proactivity Gap"—identifying the specific threshold where the automated AI task support shifts from helpful to intrusive/high cognitive load, directly influencing user trust.

Yamibuy

Chapel Hill, NC | Nov 2025 – Present

Campus Ambassador & Content Creator

- Lead campus-specific marketing initiatives and content operations for a leading e-commerce platform for Asian goods in the US, translating target consumer cultural trends into high-impact brand narratives across social media.
- Create high-quality visual content promoting specific products on social media (RedNote & Instagram) using visual design tools (e.g., Canva), achieving a peak reach of 1,000+ views per post through strategic storytelling.
- Tracked and evaluated audience engagement metrics to iteratively refine brand positioning, optimizing content structures to improve algorithmic distribution and user conversion among Gen Z segments.

Anthropological Investigation on Personal Brand & Material Culture

Chapel Hill, NC | Jan 2025 – Apr 2025

Independent Researcher

- Conducted ethnographic research exploring how digital and material subcultures shape identity perception among college students, conducting 4 depth interviews and cross-analyzing a collaborative corpus of 70 peer transcripts.
- Built a structured qualitative coding framework in Excel for 100+ personal-brand-related-items mentioned in the transcripts, successfully extracting high-frequency semantic signals and trends out of messy, raw textual data.
- Applied sociocultural theories to evaluate how narrative consistency affects brand authenticity, providing critical insights for tracking employer brand sentiment across diverse social media platforms and digital communities.

LEADERSHIP & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Eta Omega Chi Professional Business Fraternity, Zeta Chapter-UNC

Chapel Hill, NC | May 2025 – Present

Vice President of Recruitment & Development

- Lead cross-functional coordination across 4 internal divisions to recruit new members & improve programs offered.
- Launched feedback surveys and iterated programs based on insights, increasing member engagement by 60%.

UNC Information and Library Science Student Association

Chapel Hill, NC | Apr 2026 – Present

Chair of the Communications Committee

- Serve as the primary liaison between SILS undergraduates and faculty leadership, advocating for student benefits.
- Design and maintain consistent digital communication materials and messaging across multiple channels every 2 weeks, ensuring alignment with the program's core institutional value proposition.
